About CFC

CFC is a specialist insurance provider and a pioneer in emerging risk. With a track record of disrupting inefficient insurance markets, CFC uses proprietary technology to deliver high-quality products to market faster than the competition while making it easier for brokers to do business. Our broad range of commercial insurance products are purpose-built for today's risks, and we aim to give our customers everything they need in one, easy-to-understand policy.

Headquartered in London and backed by Lloyd's, CFC serves more than 70,000 businesses in over 80 countries. We're privately held and growing faster than any of our competitors in the market.

Although insurance is a serious business, our culture isn't too corporate and we never take ourselves too seriously. We are 'one-team' and enjoy a culture of openness and encouragement. We invest heavily in the learning and development of our people and enjoy a fast paced working atmosphere that is friendly, supportive, and fun.

Role definition

As a Property & Casualty Underwriter you'll develop and underwrite profitable business within CFC's Property & Casualty (P&C) team. You'll work closely with the Head of Property & Casualty and your underwriting colleagues in a variety of areas, including new business development, underwriting

- Explain the features, advantages and benefits of P&C insurance products and coverage enhancements, support product launches and raise awareness of new and existing products;
- Prepare and deliver internal and external presentations on CFC products, key trends and emerging exposures;
- Conduct research to maintain subject matter expertise in all relevant classes of business and investigate legislation/regulation/compliance issues affecting our target territories and markets;
- Effectively contribute to and/or lead team projects (e.g. enhancements to product offering, launch of new products, systems, policies and processes etc.);
- Contribute effectively to team performance standards;
- Marketing P&C team capabilities through existing contacts and new relationships including attending ad-hoc business trips in the UK and Internationally as required.
- Assist with the production of reports and statistics to support the monitoring of team performance;
- General ad-hoc and administrative duties as directed by the Head of Property & Casualty.

Skills & Ability

- Articulate and influential - you're naturally comfortable presenting to small and large groups;
- You're highly analytical with excellent logic and critical thinking skills;
- Strong numeracy and communication skills (both verbal and written);
- You're confident and self-driven and enjoy working to deadlines and targets;
- Strong work ethic with an ability to operate effectively under pressure;
- Proficient in the use of MS Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint and Outlook);
- Above all you're a team player with a passion for P&C business!

Knowledge & Experience

- Minimum 4 years' experience of underwriting or broking commercial property and casualty risks;
- Exposure to North American business desirable however not essential;
- Sound understanding of insurance markets and distribution channels.

Education & qualifications

- Undergraduate degree (preferably 2:1 classification or higher) highly desirable;
- Progression in professional examinations demonstrated (e.g. CII/ACII).
