About CFC

CFC is a specialist insurance provider and a pioneer in emerging risk. With a track record of disrupting inefficient insurance markets, CFC uses proprietary technology to deliver high-quality products to market faster than the competition while making it easier for brokers to do business. Our broad range of commercial insurance products are purpose-built for today's risks, and we aim to give our customers everything they need in one, easy-to-understand policy.

Headquartered in London, CFC serves more than 70,000 businesses in over 80 countries. We're privately held and growing faster than any of our competitors in the market.

Although insurance is a serious business, our culture isn't too corporate and we never take ourselves too seriously. We are 'one-team' and enjoy a culture of openness and encouragement. We invest heavily in the learning and development of our people and enjoy a fast paced working atmosphere that is friendly, supportive, and fun.

Role definition

You will consider professions insurance needs from a holistic perspective by writing multiple classes of insurance (E&O, CGL, property and business interruption, cyber, legal expenses, D&O). You will be involved in all aspects of underwriting including new business and renewal underwriting as well as developing long-term broker relationships.

Key responsibilities & Accountabilities

- Respond to and manage enquiries from brokers in a timely and professional manner, producing new and renewals quotations within agreed SLAs;
- Proactively develop and seek out new business opportunities, building strong broker relationships (both face to face and over phone) to create profitable Canadian Professions business;
- Explain the features, advantages and benefits of Professions insurance products, coverage enhancements, support product launches and raise awareness of new and existing products;
- Deliver internal and external presentations on CFC products, key trends and emerging exposures;
- Research with a mind to develop subject matter expertise in Professions classes and investigate relevant legislation/regulation/compliance issues within our target markets;
- Provide guidance and support to junior members of the Professions underwriting team on technical queries;
- Support and contribute to team projects (e.g. enhancements to product offering, launch of new products, systems, policies and processes etc.);
- Contribute effectively to team performance standards and new business / renewal targets; and
- Attend ad-hoc business trips internationally (primarily to Canada) as required.

Skills & Ability

- Articulate and influential - you're naturally comfortable presenting to small and large groups;
- You're highly analytical - applying logic and critical thinking to analyse complex risks;
- You have strong numeracy and communication skills (both verbal and written);
- You're confident and self-driven and enjoy working to deadlines and targets;
- Proficient in the use of MS Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint and Outlook);
- Above all you're a team player!

Knowledge & Experience

- 3 - 5 years underwriting experience in a professional liability role;
- With multi-class insurance underwriting exposure preferred;
- Canada professions underwriting experience preferred;
- Preferred areas of expertise or interest – Architects, engineers, miscellaneous professionals, the healthcare space or the oil & gas industry;
- Sound negotiation and presentation experience.

Education & qualifications

- Degree level education (2:1 or better) preferred but not essential;
- CII certification (ACII preferred).
