Overview

Our transaction liability insurance products are structured to protect against financial loss arising from an inaccuracy in a representation or warranty given by sellers in a share or asset purchase agreement.

Transaction Liability Private Enterprise (TLPE) insurance insures sellers of small and micro businesses against the risk of financial loss as a result of an inaccuracy in a representation or warranty. TLPE also covers defense costs.

Coverage highlights

Breach of representations & warranties

Our TLPE policy provides cover for financial loss or liability arising from a breach of a representation or warranty given by sellers in a share or asset purchase agreement.

Defense costs

CFC's policy provides cover for defense costs arising from the claim of an inaccuracy in a representation or warranty.

Full indemnity policy limit

Unlike traditional R&W policies which typically provide a policy limit of 10% of enterprise value (EV), CFC's TLPE policy insures the full indemnity given by the seller in the sale agreement, up to USD 10m. This means we can offer a limit of up to 100% EV.

Duty to defend

Underwriters have a duty to defend, giving insureds the benefit of sophisticated legal advice and representation.

Streamlined underwriting

Coverage can be bound within 3 business days following receipt of the transaction documentation and responses to our underwriting questions, as set out in the TLPE insurance application.

Appetite

What we love

Small and micro deals with an enterprise value of USD 250k - 10m across the manufacturing, education, franchise, retail, leisure, hospitality and real estate sectors.

What we consider

Professional services, technology service and product businesses, transport and aviation and insurance brokers.

What we ordinarily decline

Healthcare, financial services, oil and gas, mining, pharmaceuticals and regulated industries (such as telecommunications). Deals greater than USD 10m may be insurable under our standard R&W insurance product.
